

Domaine Guillot-Broux

Mâcon-Villages Rouge Cinquième Génération

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Elevating the wines of the Mâcon, the Guillot family has been a champion of organic winemaking and single vineyard wine production for nearly 70 years.
- Jean-Gérard Guillot founded Domaine Guillot-Broux in 1978 and was at the helm until his death in 2008. His sons Emmanuel and Patrice carry on his legacy.
- Organic farming was established in 1954 with the estate receiving certification in 1991.
- Specific terroirs from the villages of Cruzille, Grévilly, and Chardonnay are highlighted, showcasing the diversity in climate and nature that this region has to offer.
- These wines are some of the best in the Mâcon and easily stand toe-to-toe qualitatively with their neighbors to the north.

APPELLATION

Mâcon-Villages

SUB-REGION

Mâcon

GRAPE VARIETY

40% Gamay, 40% Pinot Noir, 20% Chardonnay

FARMING

Sustainable, Organic (Ecocert)

SOIL

Clay-limestone

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

Gamay, Pinot Noir, and Chardonnay from a single site, co-planted, this is a nod to how Burgundy was made before the appellation system was established.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

Semi-carbonic fermentation, then aged for one year in Stockinger founder. Racked to tank for six months, then bottled. Less than 25g total sulfur.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME

13.0

PACK SIZE

6x1.5L